Sex is...

How would your child finish that sentence? How would you like for them to be able to finish that sentence? The answer will be based on what they've been taught and what they've experienced.

Here are three points to collectively consider:

1. Based on my experience, and other experts in the field, only about 1-2% of parents are teaching their children all the things God wants them to know about His design and plan for love, sex, sexuality and relationships in their lives.
2. Research says the average age of first exposure to pornography is 11 years old, but the experts I've consulted with say if a new study were to be conducted today that number would be closer to 8 or 9 years old. A study published in 2008 revealed that 93% of boys and 62% of girls had seen online porn by the time they graduated high school and I assure you that those percentages are higher now.
3. Thirty years ago violent pornography was a rare, hard-to-find subcategory of the porn industry. Today, however, violent porn is the norm. In a study published in 2010, 88% of scenes in porn videos included violence (i.e. spanking, slapping, hair pulling, choking, bondage, etc.). In that same study, it was reported that 95% of the time any of these violent acts were directed toward females before or during sex, those females either responded with pleasure or had a neutral response to it, thus sending the message to male viewers "Women like this and it is a normal part of sex." The message it sends to female viewers is "You should like this because this is a normal part of sex." Let me reiterate that this type of pornography is the NORM now.

Put all those points together and here's what you get. Your child, out of curiosity, seeks and finds porn, or accidentally comes across it, or has it shown to them by a friend or family member. What they see is a man degrading a woman and since they haven't been taught ALL the things they need to know about porn, sex, sexuality, relationships they think to themselves, "Ooooh! THIS is what sex is." THIS is the foundation being laid in the minds of our children with regards to what sex. I know because I have been counseling young Christians down the road at FHU for almost 10 years now. I have countless real stories of young people who have grown up in good Christian homes just like yours to back up the statistics I'm sharing with you.

So what can you do about all this? Register for the upcoming seminar Helping Children Achieve Healthy Sexual Development: What Parents Need to Know & What They Can Do, on Saturday, July 8th from 9am to 12pm in the Estes Church of Christ Auditorium. This seminar is for parents with children of all ages, future parents, grandparents and anyone who works with or has influence in any child's life. In other words, it's for everyone. Plus, it has been made free and open by the elders, so invite others to come too. Pre-register by going to www.righttimerighttalk.com/speaking and click "Register here..."

In the Spotlight

We welcome Austin and Summer England to our Estes family! Austin and Summer have been Estes attendees regularly through their college career and we are pleased they have decided to join our Estes family as they begin married life (the wedding was June 8!).

Both Austin and Summer are recent FHU grads. Austin is a Quality Assurance Analyst at 8th Day Software and Summer is a consultant at Rina's Bridal and Quinceañera Boutique. She works with special events clients in both English and Spanish. Austin is originally from Gallatin, TN, and Summer hails from Hebron, KY. In their spare time, they both enjoy singing, theatre, traveling, and eating yummy food.

Young Families

Ohana Means Family

Cookout to welcome & support Xander, Elisha Partain's nephew (she has recently been granted guardianship)

Friday, July 7 | 6 pm at Trent & Suzanne Scott's house

If you can, bring cash gifts and gift cards to help this family with sudden and unexpected expenses. If you are not in the Young Families' group but would still like to help, see Suzanne Scott or Beth Sanford.

Young Families - sign up for what food to bring in the Facebook group.

Mark Stewart has decided to step down as a deacon. The elders wish to thank Mark for his many years of service at Estes as a deacon and we know he will be serving the Lord in other ways.

We are thankful for all your prayers while Alba stayed at the hospital because of early labor. Baby Benjamin was born a healthy, full-term baby, and we feel so blessed knowing that so many brethren were praying. Thank you so much for the meal train that was set up and all the delicious meals that were brought to us. That was an incredible help while Alba was in bed rest and after Benjamin was born. We are also so grateful for the baby shower and your sweetness and generosity! Love, Perry, Alba, Abigail, and Benjamin Hardin

To my church family: Thanks to Jerry Beshires and his crew for building my ramp. Thanks to Tony Hysmith for overseeing it done. Thanks to anyone else that was responsible. I hope some day I'll be able to come to church; I am just not that well yet. Maybe some day. In Christian love,
Carolyn Henry

To my precious Estes family: You have encouraged me and lifted my spirits with your prayers, cards, e-cards, and sweet messages on Facebook. I'm feeling stronger each day. I'm looking forward to being in my pew with you again. Please continue your prayers for a full recovery. I love you all - Jackie Hibbett

To our new Estes family, Thank you so much for the outpouring of love you have shown us in our first week at Estes! We cannot thank you enough for the items we received in the "pounding," and for helping us move into our new home. We look forward to working with you all in the next several years! Thanks again, Josh and Rachel Taylor
