KIDS FOR HAITI Fair

Sunday, November 5, after evening worship
BRING FINGER FOODS AND A GENEROUS HEART.

This Sunday night after evening worship, you have the opportunity to see love in action; to watch the shining faces of our children as they showcase items they have made or services they offer as they ask for your help in supporting our mission effort in Haiti. The Kids for Haiti Fair began in 2015 and our children raised $1400 which they gifted to the elders for Haiti missions. Last year they raised $2000! With your generosity, this year's event could support MANY children in our nutrition and education programs in Haiti.

While this Fair is a combined effort of kids, parents, teachers, and the Estes members who buy lots of stuff, it is a fun way for our kids to become involved in the important task of helping others. Previous items for sale have included paintings, birdhouses, Christmas ornaments, baked goods, musical concerts, dog-sitting services, and plants. Won't you plan to stay, fellowship and shop, and encourage our children and their servant hearts?

Let's all thank God for sending such tender and willing hearts that through his will can serve the church, the Lord, and his people into the next generation!

Trunk or Treat & Family Camp - what a weekend!

Thanks so much to everyone who helped with this year's Trunk or Treat. It was a fantastic night with hundreds of visitors. Thanks especially to our snack crew, the "trunk" operators, the registrars, the safety crew, our hayride coordinator, our haunted hallway crew, and our fearless leaders, Josh & Rachel Taylor and David Falkenheim.

Thanks for a memorable weekend of shenanigans, fun, and fellowship, Bible study and reflection. Thanks to the family camp committee for putting together a great program, to our Bible class and devotional speakers, and to the elders for sharing their culinary skills. Join us next year!
