Why Should I Believe in the Christian Life?

Even if the promises of heaven were removed from the Bible, the Christian life would still be worth living. It is the most noble and fulfilling life possible. Living for Christ leads one away from the deceptive things of this world that ultimately destroy happiness, relationships, and lives (Colossians 3:1-11). The Christian vocation engenders personal growth, maturity, and character (Romans 5:3-4), offering forgiveness, a good conscience, peace, and joy that would otherwise be unavailable (Philippians 4:6-9). Being a disciple of Jesus makes life's burdens much easier to bear (Galatians 6:2; 1 Peter 5:7). This in no way suggests that being a Christian is easy, which is something the Lord never promised. But does anything truly worthwhile ever come easy? (cf. Mark 10:29-30).

Coins for Kids

Each year the Tennessee Children's Home gives out hundreds of coin boxes to churches across the state so Christians can start saving their loose change to help the children who are served by the Home. If you teach a Bible Class, why not put one in your classroom and teach your students about giving to help other kids? The boxes are available at the Welcome Center. Take one (or more) and make a difference in the lives of children who are going through a difficult time. We will collect them in March.

When you turn in your box, place an address label on it and you will receive a receipt from the TCH for tax purposes. If you have any questions or want additional information, see Allen Walker.

Moving help is needed for Monday, November 20. If you can help, contact Davis Parten at davisparten@yahoo.com or 731-435-9318.
