Let's Be Thoughtful About How We Dress

THE ELDERS

Perception matters

How the church is perceived by the world is an important consideration, as well as how we view one another. To give no offense is a worthy aim (1 Cor. 10:32-33). What does our standard of dress reflect about our character and priorities? Being clothed with Christ (Gal. 3:26), with holiness and honor (1 Thess. 4:4-7), with godliness and good works (1 Tim. 2:10), and with a gentle and quiet spirit (1 Pet. 3:4) are reflected in our outward appearance. God is to be glorified instead of drawing the attention to ourselves.

Holiness matters

What we wear should not be a distraction to others, especially as we assemble to worship. Holiness looks beyond self (1 Pet. 1:13-17). Clothing, or the lack thereof, that draws attention to one's sexuality is inappropriate. When scripture calls for "modest apparel" (1 Tim. 2:9-10), the admonition is against dressing in such a way that directs the focus of onlookers to one's outer adornment rather than one's inner virtue. If my heart is nonchalant or vain in its approach to worship and is manifested in how I dress, merely changing clothes won't change the heart. But a change of heart will surely impact what I choose to wear.

Summer

With summer approaching, as with all seasons, let's all be mindful of what is communicated by how we dress. Without providing specific and universal measurements or guidelines, the Bible does affirm the basic principle of modest attire. Not everyone shares the same convictions about what is modest or immodest, but we can strive for balance and avoid extremes. May we be humble and selfless as we seek to honor God and consider how our fashion choices affect and influence those around us.

1 TIMOTHY 2:9-10

9 I also want the women to dress modestly, with decency and propriety, adorning themselves, not with elaborate hairstyles or gold or pearls or expensive clothes, 10 but with good deeds, appropriate for women who profess to worship God.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL IS COMING

Vacation Bible School will run Sunday, July 21 through Wednesday, July 24. Our theme this year will be Judges, Kings, and Prophets. We will need lots of volunteers, prayers, and cookies to make this week a success. See Jason Lockridge for ways to be involved and help.

NURSERY WORKERS NEEDED

We are in need of nursery workers for the months of June and July. There is a sign up sheet for nursery volunteers on the activities board. Please sign up if you can help with our sweet babies this summer. See Donna Lussier for details.

WAYS TO SERVE

Remember, you can cheer someone's day by sending an e-card to patients in Jackson-Madison County General Hospital at www.wth.org. Click on "Patient Greeting Card" to the right. You'll need to either provide a room number or an area of the hospital where the patient is, like "chemo outpatient" or "NICU."

LUKE 17:11-19

11 Now on his way to Jerusalem, Jesus traveled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. 12 As he was going into a village, ten men who had leprosy met him. They stood at a distance 13 and called out in a loud voice, "Jesus, Master, have pity on us!" 14 When he saw them, he said, "Go, show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were cleansed. 15 One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice. 16 He threw himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him—and he was a Samaritan. 17 Jesus asked, "Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine? 18 Has no one returned to give praise to God except this foreigner?" 19 Then he said to him, "Rise and go; your faith has made you well."
